Sinai [1a] Bischoff-Tulleken Lelies [0.7m] Large yellow orange blooms are unspotted with dark brown pollen. [EM]
Fall. [# Sin 25] [$4.50] or [3 for $11.00]

Skydancer [1c] A. J. Porter [1.5 – 2 m] Yellow petals with brown spots recurve slightly making this a nice lily for the garden at the end of the season. [L]
Fall. [# Sky 50] [$5.50]

Snowbrook [1a-b] Cebeco [80 cm] Strong stems support this cluster of small clean white blooms. No spots or pollen on this one!! [EM]
Fall. [# Sno 60] [$5.00] or [3 for $13.00]

Sunday Parfait [1a] [90 cm] One of our introductions. The top half of the petals are muted fuchsia pink with the lower half being a deep yellow orange. The attractive inflorescence on sturdy stems attracts the attention of many visitors. [M]
Fall. [# Sun 29] [$10.00]

Sungod [1b] E. Brooman [90 cm] Considered by some to be the “blackest asiatic lily” because it does not have the red sheen of Summer Night. The blooms re-curve unlike those of Summer Night. [M]
Fall. [# Sun 30] [$15.00]

Susan Eileen [1a] A. J. Porter [90 cm] Apricot orange with a hint of rose as the buds grow. Some spots on the lower half of the petals. [EM]
Fall. [# Sus 50] [$5.00]

Sutter's Gold [1c] J. de Graaff [90 cm] Yellow with spots on the lower half of the petals. Petals reflex. [M]
Fall. [# Sut 50] [$5.00] or [3 for $13.00]

Tahitian Dawn [1a] [90 cm] Copper coloured but without pollen. Flowers are of a good size for corsage use. [M]
Fall. [# Tah 50] [$4.50] or [3 for $11.00]

The bloom season for lilies can be extended by growing lilies from all Divisions; e.g. Div. II bloom first, then Div. I, followed by Div. VIII.

Tinkerbell [1c] L. D. Marshall [1m] Flowers are red purple which re-curve to display tiny magenta spots on the inner petals. [EM]

Fall. [# Tin 45] [$10.00]

White Princess [1c] C. F. Patterson [1.2m] Creamy white with fine purple spots. A welcome addition to the perennial border. [M]

Fall. [# Whi 60] [$6.00]

Yellow Joy [1a] F. Fellner [1m] A lily that was an instant favourite when we were searching for up facing "yellows". The yellow blooms have green throats with black spots over the lower half of each petal. [M]

Fall. [# Yel 40] [$5.00]

Pixies

And other short Asiatic hybrid varieties suitable for containers, rock gardens, or the front row of the perennial border.

Crimson Pixie [1a] E. A. McRae [40 cm] This short lily holds its vivid orange red unspotted flowers proudly on strong stems. This one is recommended for container & rock garden plantings or for the front of the perennial border. [EM]

Fall. [# Cri 50] [$5.00]

Lemon Cupcake [1a] Van der Salm [60 cm] Large light yellow blooms are supported on strong sturdy stems . A mid size plant for a "filler" in the perennial border. [EM]

Fall. [# Lem 30] [$5.00]

Yellow Pixie [1a] [30 cm] Bright yellow flowers on short strong stems. [M]

Fall. [# Yel 58] [$5.00] or [3 for $13.00]

Yum Yum [1a] [50 cm] Deep rosy pink petals accented with white on lower third of the petals and lots of spots make this lily a gem in the garden. [EM]

Fall. [# Yum 65] [$6.00]

We do not keep a supply of bulbs on hand so we request that you place orders in accordance with our deadlines. We ask that ALL orders be prepaid with cheque or money order.

Triploid and Tetraploid Asiatic Hybrids

If you are a lily grower and would like to try your hand at hybridizing you may want to include some these in your program.

Triploid lilies have three times the normal haploid set of chromosomes with tetraploid lilies having four times the normal haploid set of chromosomes.

This characteristic is exhibited in the plant with enhanced substance in the flower petals and stronger stems and heavier foliage.

Angel's Touch [1a] van der Salm [90 cm] An instant favourite with its interesting colour combination of pink, rose and yellow. [M]

Fall. [# Ang 50] [$6.00]

Bold Knight [1b] H. E. Sunley [1.1m] A natural triploid with deep red flowers make this an attractive garden lily. Strong stems. [M]

Fall. [# Bol 50] [$5.00] or [3 for # 13.00]

Gran Paradiso [1a] Vletter & den Haan [1m] Heavily textured cup-shaped flowers of orange-red give a fluorescent appearance to the area of the garden where this lily is planted. Flowers are unspotted and are long lasting in arrangements. [EM]

Fall. [# Gra 50] [$6.00]

River Rouge [1a] Van der Salm [90 cm] Large deep red with a hint of burgundy is the colour of the large blooms of this lily. The lower part of the bloom is sprinkled with dark spots. [EM]

Fall. [# Riv 65] [$6.00]

Super Nova [1a] Cebeco [90 cm] Large blooms of bronzed orange, with no spots, are held proudly by strong stems. [M]

Fall. [# Sup 30] [$6.00] or [3 for $15.00]

Martagon Hybrids Division II

Amelita [II] F. Tarlton [1m] The re-curved blooms are purple pink held proudly on long pedicels. The pollen is yellow providing a striking contrast. [E]

Fall. [# Ame 50] [$20.00]

Autumn Color [II] E. Robinson [1-1.3m] Yellow blooms with dark maroon spotting. [E]

Fall. [# Aut 70] [$30.00]

Dalhansonii [II] [1m] Dark reddish brown. Petals reflex. [E]

Fall. [# Dal 40] [$10.00]
